The following position at the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna is advertised:

University professorship

in accordance with § 99 Austrian University Act 2002 (Universitätsgesetz 2002) for Gender and Space / Design at the Institute for Art and Architecture (IKA). This professorship is offered for 32 hours per week for a period of two years, starting on 1 October 2024.

The IKA offers two fields of study: Architecture and Scenography.

The architectural education (BA and MA) is based on an interacting structure of five platforms, each dedicated to a specific focus. These five platforms are: Analogue Digital Production (ADP), Structural Materials Technology (CMT), Ecology Sustainability Cultural Heritage (ESC), History Theory Criticism (HTC), Geography Landscapes Cities (GLC).

Scenography is a four-year diploma course dealing with the staging of spaces. Temporary spaces for theater, opera, performance and public areas are developed in project-based classes.

The courses of the advertised professorship are open to students of all fields of study offered at the Academy.

The advertised position addresses people whose artistic practice, experimental work or theoretical research has dealt with intersections in the fields of spatial production and/or spatial staging as well as architecture and/or scenography with special reference to the subject area of gender and space and who have helped shape the discourse of critical spatial practice internationally.
